FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Beauty Night at Boots

Elizabeth Arden at Boots in St Albans recently organised a beauty night and exclusive shopping opportunity to help raise funds for the St Albans Bereavement Network. World renowned make-up artist and skin care specialist Joseph Hernandez hosted the evening and offered tips and advice on how to get the best out of the array of skin care and make-up products available. Joseph entertained his audience with fascinating and amusing insights into the world of an international makeup artist.

Vivian Lawman, SABN's Network Manager, visited the store last week to collect a generous donation from Boots made through their Make the Difference Fund (£458). Vivian also thanked the Boots Team Manager, Scott Garman and Elizabeth Arden's Wendy Seabrook and the other members of the Elizabeth Arden and Boots team for all their hard work in setting up the evening and helping to make it an such an enjoyable and successful event.

Vivian Lawman commented that "the generous donation made by Boots to match the funds raised from the evening was much appreciated by the St

Notes to the editors:

Now in its tenth year, SABN offers free support to bereaved children, young people, adults and their families who live within the St Albans City and District, to enable them to make sense of their loss and move forward with hope.

The consequences of the death of a close relative are huge for everyone but particularly for children whose lives may be totally disrupted. Services are provided free of charge and SABN is reliant on grants and voluntary donations, in addition to the services of a large group of highly trained volunteers.
